Australopithecus sediba: A New Species of Homo-like Australopith from South Africa

Summary / Zusammenfassung
Since the original find in 2008 of spectacular hominin fossils, the Swiss Field School is involved in the excavation at Malapa (South Africa). Until 2010 more than 180 fragments of two individuals were unearthed. The project involves the excavation, preparation, and analysis of these fossils.

Publications / Publikationen

Keywords / Suchbegriffe
Australopithecus sediba, Malapa, South Africa

Project Leadership and Contacts / Projektleitung und Kontakte
Prof. Lee R. Berger (Project Leader)  profleeberger@yahoo.com
Dr. Peter Schmid (Project Leader)  smidi@aim.uzh.ch
Prof. Steve Churchill (Project Leader)  churchy@duke.edu
Prof. Darryl de Ruiter (Project Leader)  deruiter@tamu.edu

Funding Source(s) / Unterstützt durch private money and partially by the AHS-Foundation

In Collaboration with / In Zusammenarbeit mit
Institute of Human Evolution, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg  South Africa

Duration of Project / Projektdauer
Sep 2008 to Nov 2020